パタリロ7世と8世

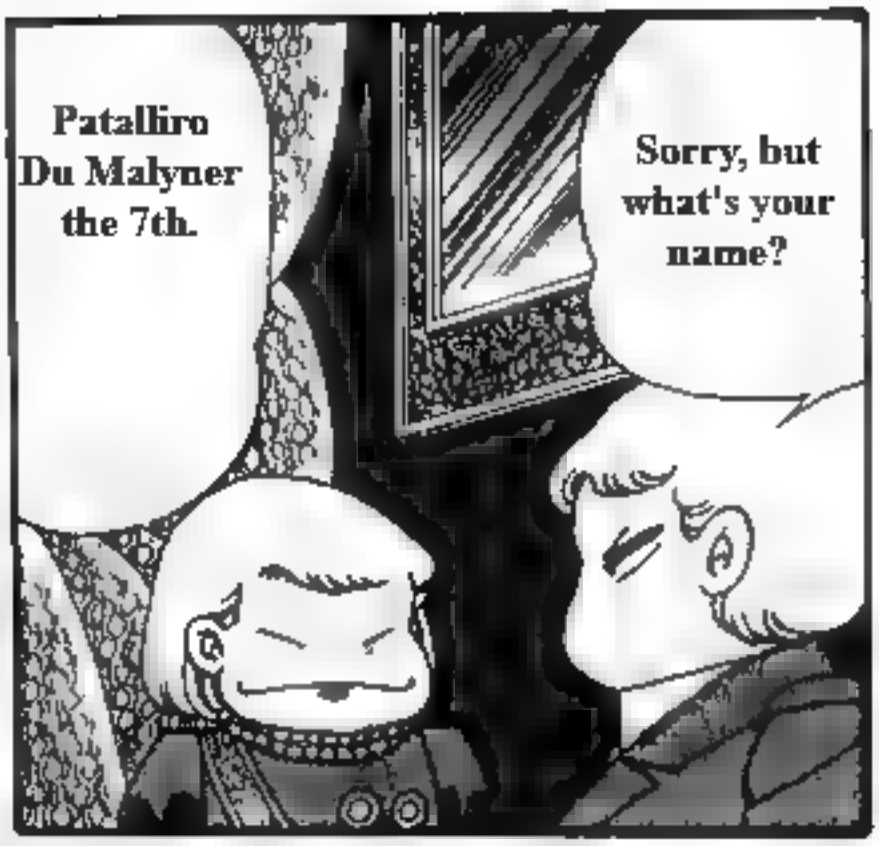
I'm Patalliro Du Malyner the 8th so...
Patalliro Du Malyner the 7th?



Patalliro Du Malyner the 7th.
Sorry, but what's your name?

I get it! The shock from the dynamite blast from before must caused a time slip to happen!
It's an awfully cheap setup but I must have slipped into the past!!

Eh?
Cou, could you be my ancestor?!

Nothing like the feel of a plump cheek...
Aah, there's nothing like the feel of a plump stomach.

Descendant!
Ancestor!

What?! You mean you're my descendant?!

Aah, my ribs!

Ancestor!

Descendant!

Don't breath on me there.

This is like being incestuous with myself.

Aaaaah ...

Aaaaah !!

The truth is, the Malynera you've come to is in a terrible predicament right now.

No, this isn't the time for foolishness.

— Pon Pat

You're my ancestor for sure!

It's a warship from the British Empire.

What?!

They plan on making countries everywhere in the world their vassals, and they've finally come to Malynera.

You're definitely my descendant.

/ Hah hah!!!

パタリロ7世と8世

Hoo

They give you two options. Become our vassal or you'll be attacked.

Ah, their warships have the latest technology, Malynera's troops don't stand a chance.

*The sound a nightingale makes.

Ho ho ho

Hmm.

It seems we're both mistaken.

Who's a stupid bird? This is a thousand cranes.

Stop imitating a stupid bird.

Aaaaah

I'll use my knowledge of the future for the sake of Malynera. First, let's trounce that warship.

Well, I couldn't help but laugh at the latest style of sailboat, it's amusing.

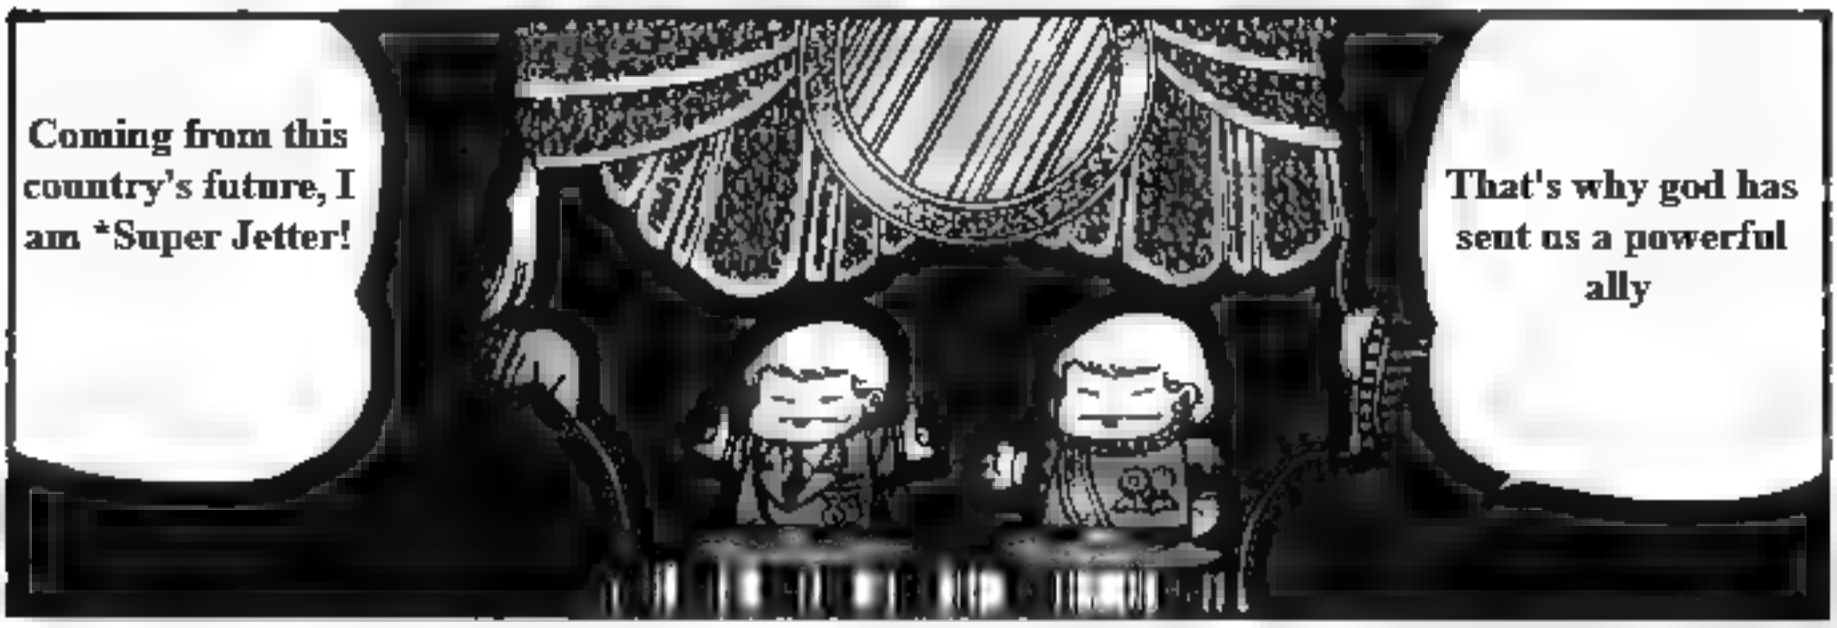
Eh! Same here.

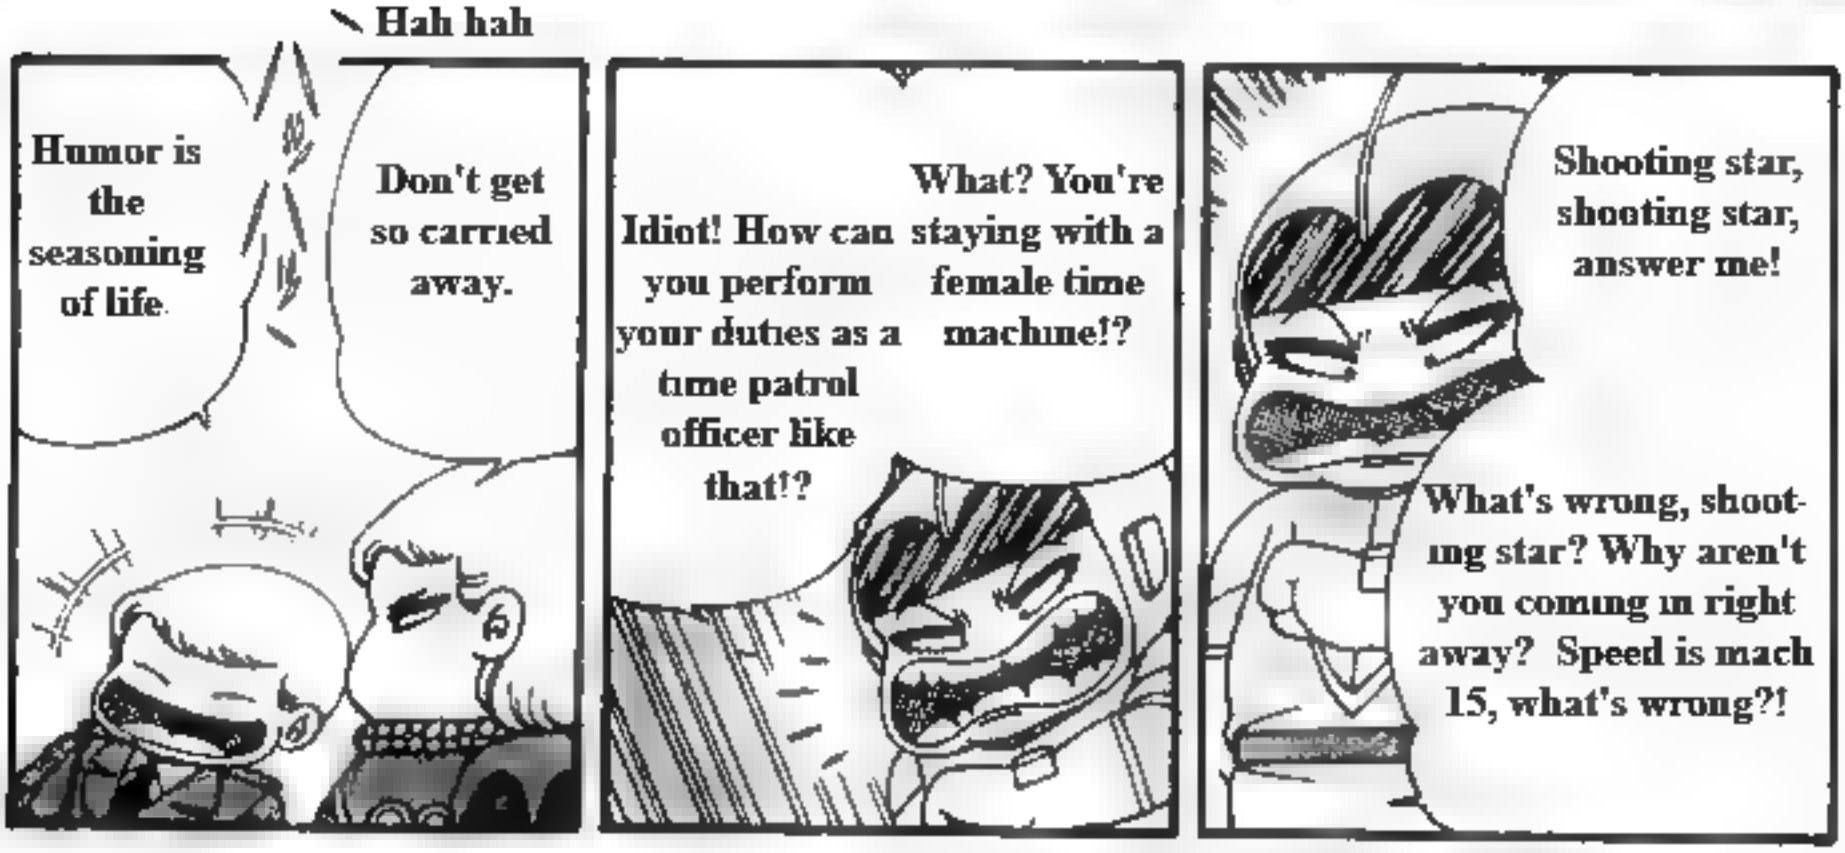
Let's stop, I'm going to get too caught up.

Descendant!

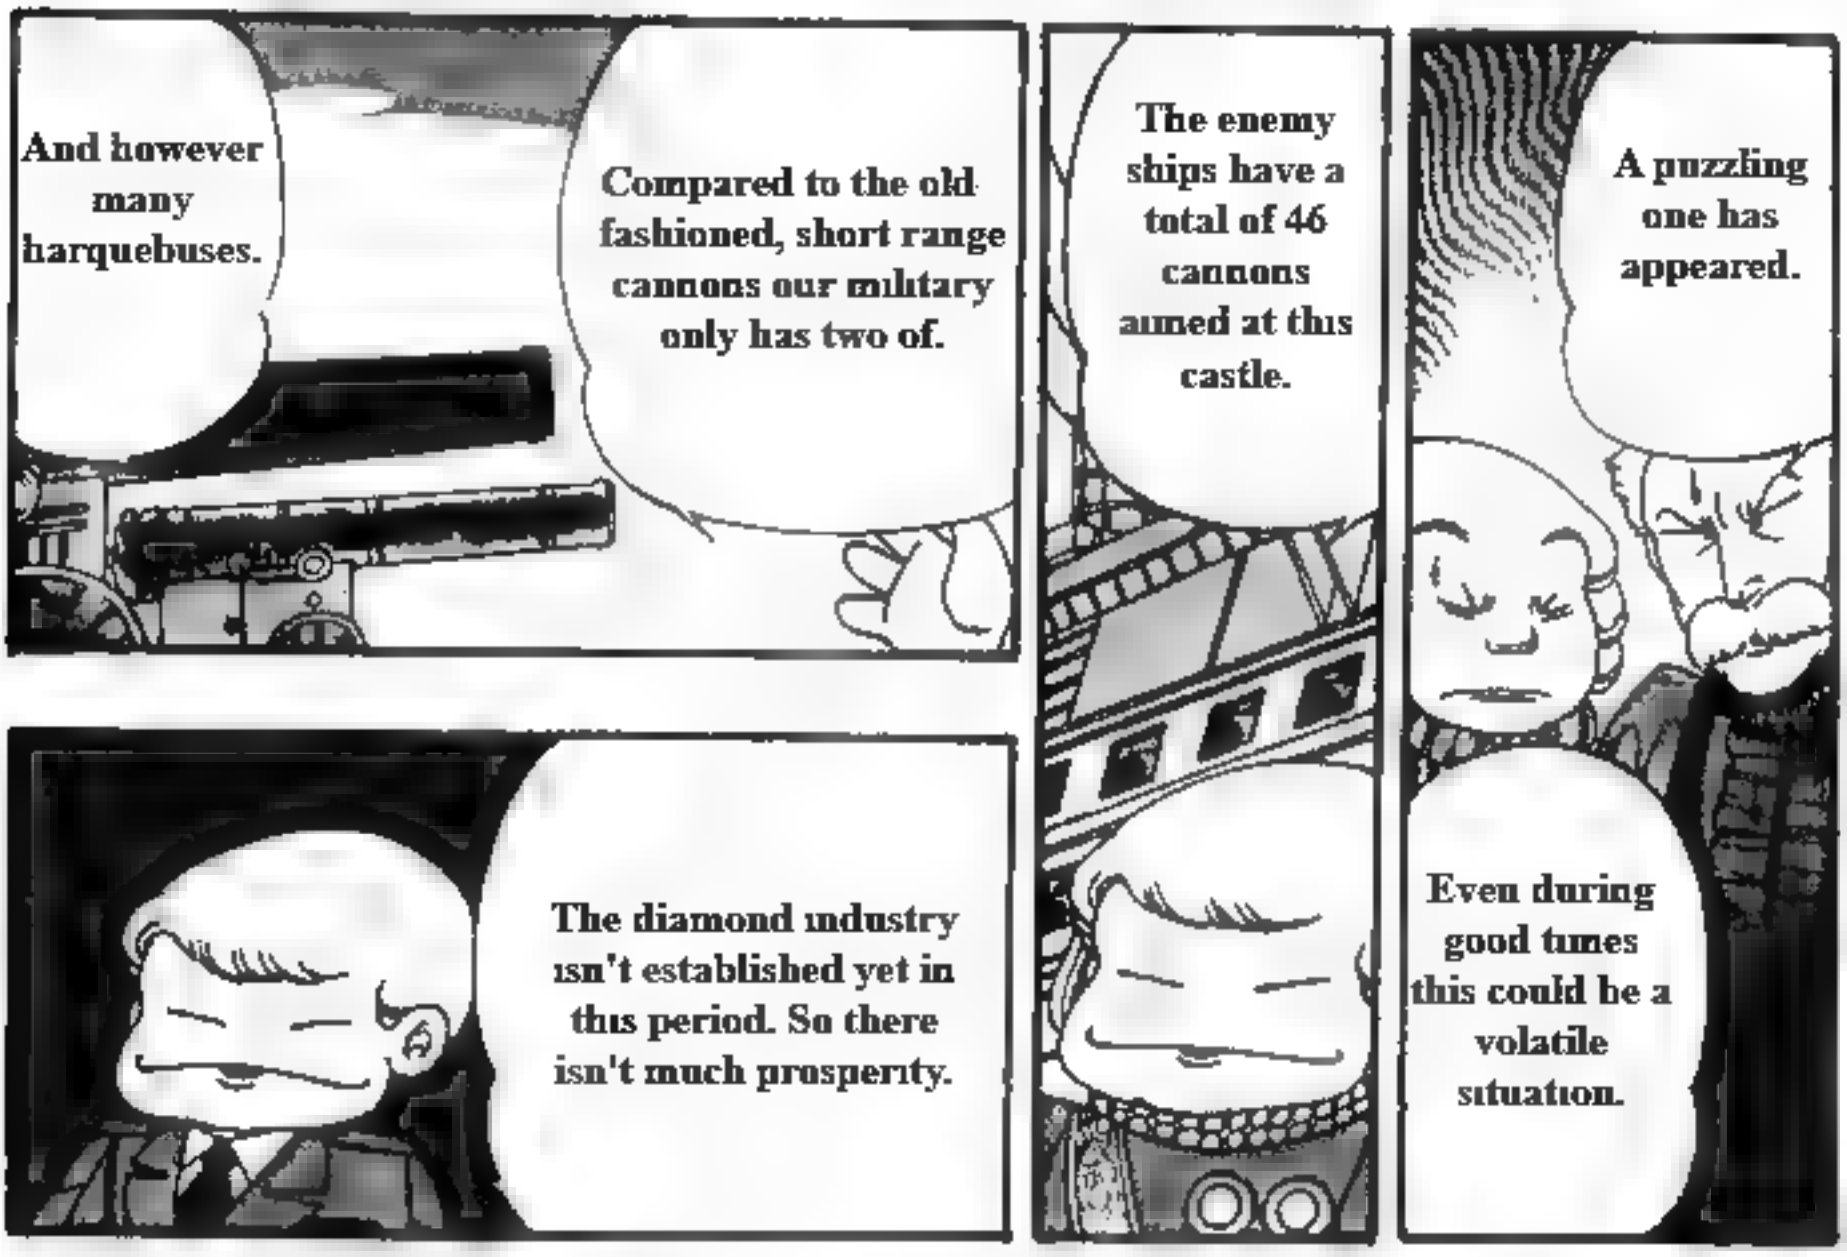
I see, you're from the future.

*Super Jetter is an older series about a man from the 30th century going back in time to stop a meteor from hitting the Earth.



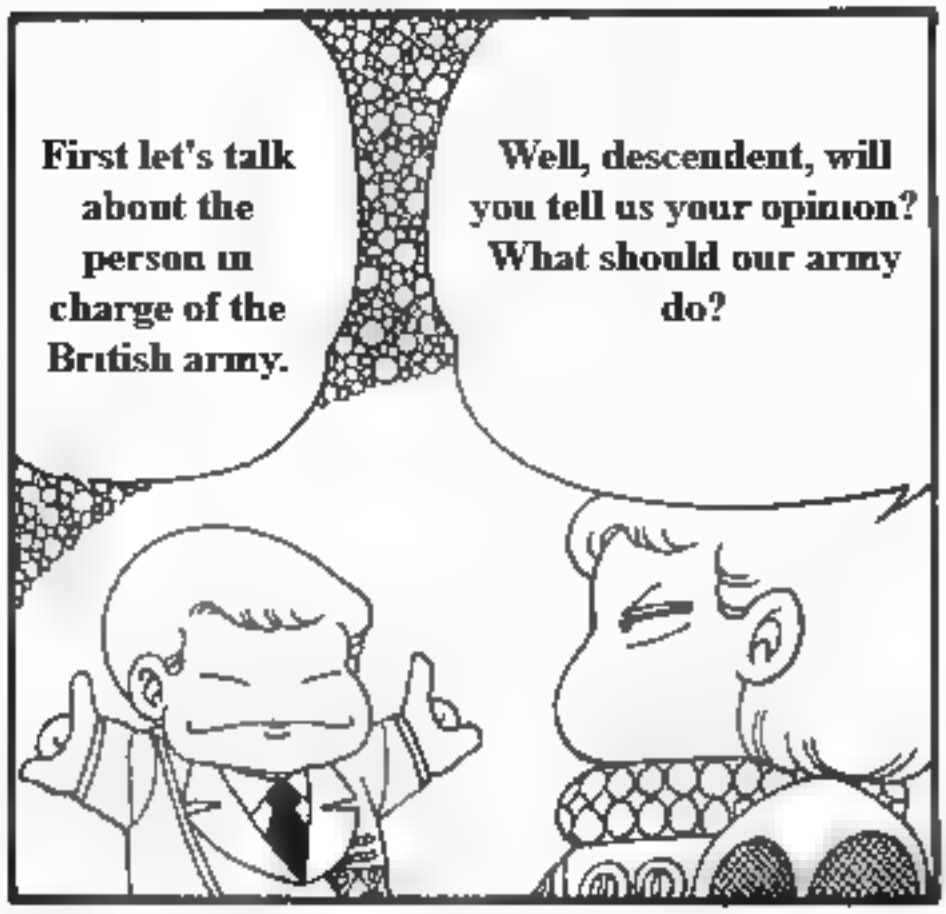


Hah hah
Humor is the seasoning of life.
Don't get so carried away.
Idiot! How can you perform your duties as a time patrol officer like that!?
What? You're staying with a female time machine!?
Shooting star, shooting star, answer me!
What's wrong, shooting star? Why aren't you coming in right away? Speed is mach 15, what's wrong?!



And however many harquebuses.
Compared to the old fashioned, short range cannons our military only has two of.
The enemy ships have a total of 46 cannons aimed at this castle.
A puzzling one has appeared.
The diamond industry isn't established yet in this period. So there isn't much prosperity.
Even during good times this could be a volatile situation.

Don't say such disturbing things.
I see. We'll pretend to speak with them then secretly poison their tea.

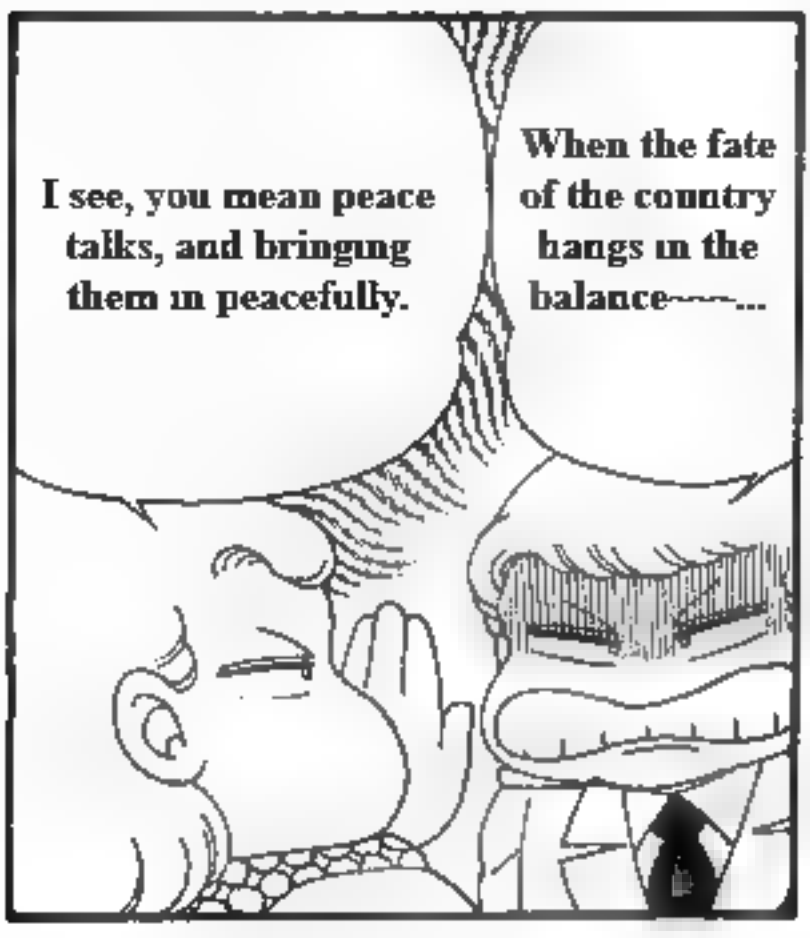


First let's talk about the person in charge of the British army.
Well, descendent, will you tell us your opinion? What should our army do?

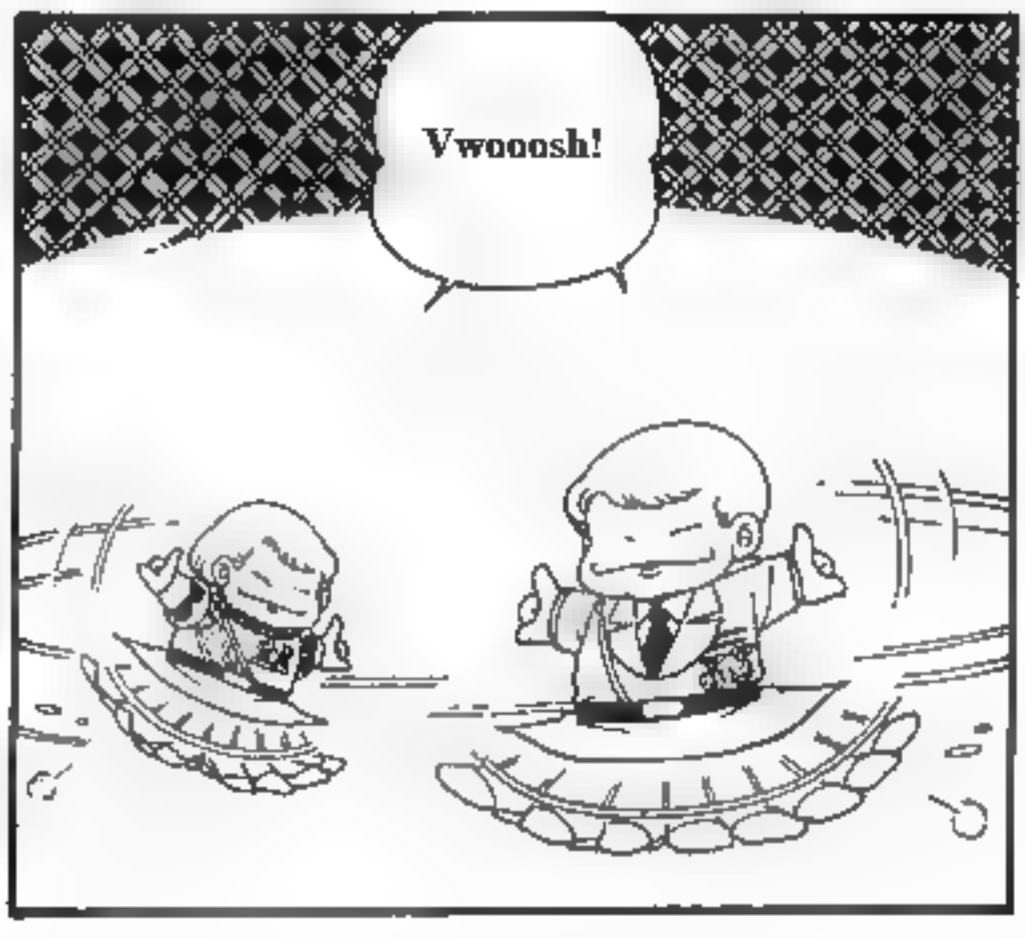
Yaay!
Flying pervert!

Are you a pervert?
You mean like raping everyone?

I meant something else.
And then strike them with a dagger from behind.

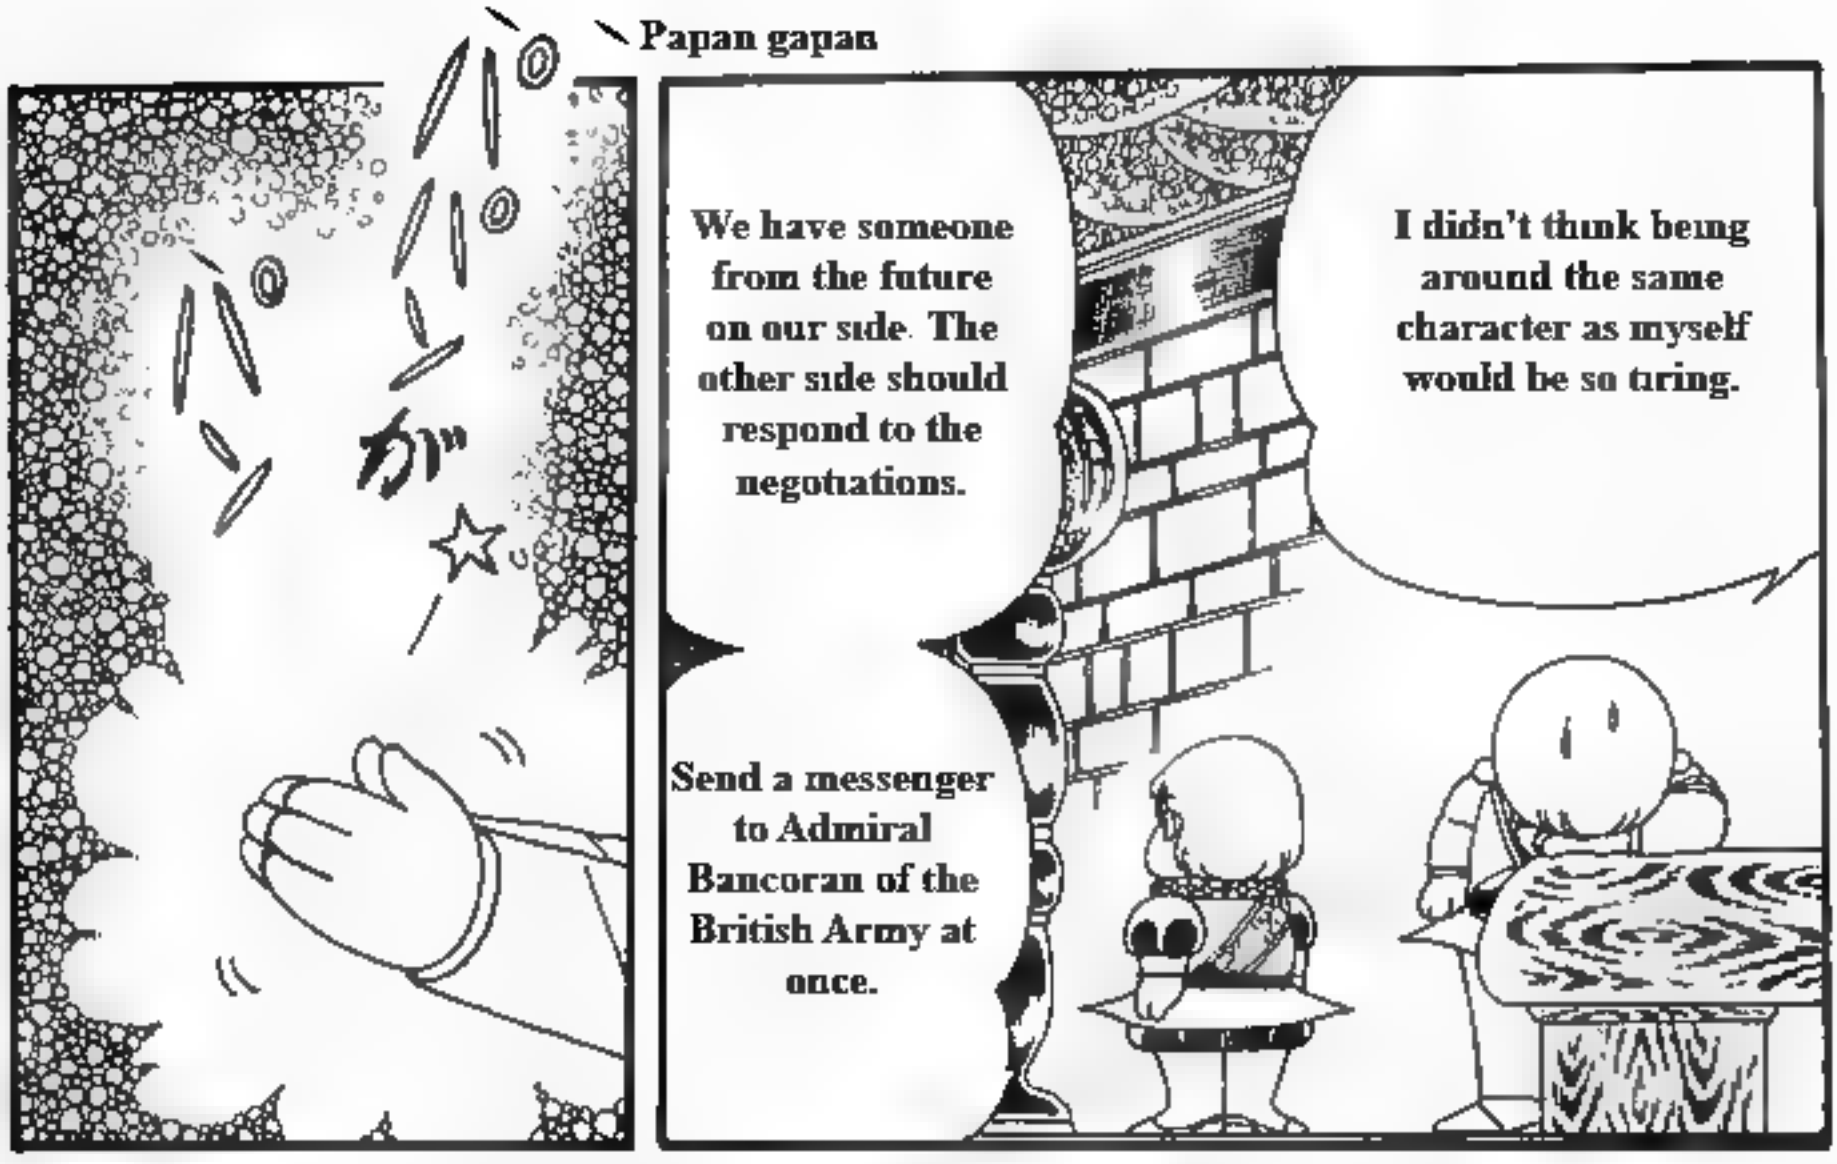


I see, you mean peace talks, and bringing them in peacefully.
When the fate of the country hangs in the balance——...



Vwoooosh!

Papan gapan



We have someone from the future on our side. The other side should respond to the negotiations.
Send a messenger to Admiral Bancoran of the British Army at once.
I didn't think being around the same character as myself would be so tiring.

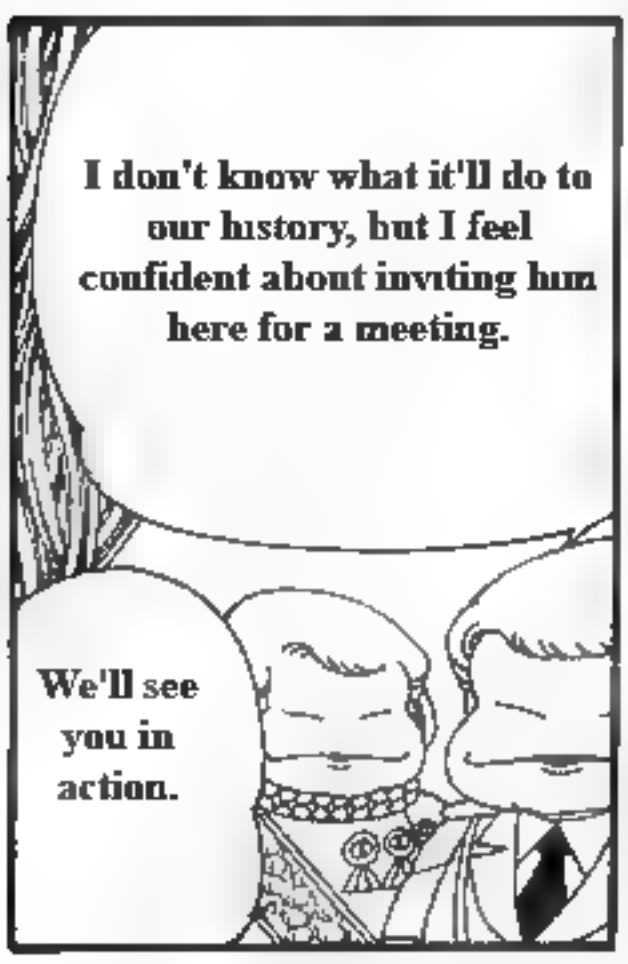
Did you say Bancoran ?!
By the way, what's so surprising?

It brings back the wonderful feeling of being a baby bird in the nest.
Robin



I don't know what it'll do to our history, but I feel confident about inviting him here for a meeting.
We'll see you in action.

I see, that's definitely Bancoran. Imagine meeting his ancestor in a place like this.

Please! Let me see the admiral! The admiral...!

A messenger? There's nothing to meet about.

Admiral, there's a messenger from Malynera.

That's right. You're the messenger?

You... you're the admiral ...?

Ah...

Please, come to the castle with me! If I don't return with the admiral, His Highness said he would hang me!

Since his descendent is his descendent, I figured his ancestor would like pretty boys for sure.

Good, now we could prepare for a meeting.

Look, he's following him back, unconcerned.

It's not good to assume things are so one-sided.

What do you plan on meeting about now? Surrender or war. One of those two.

Even if you're optimistic, dawn is coming in just 3 hours.

Well, what kind of weapon shall we make? If our opponents have ships then sea mines should be good, or torpedoes.

Something like a wire-guided torpedo would be ideal but it's not easy to throw out things like homing torpedos or ASROC missiles or hedgehog bombs...

Well, they're preparing to attack at dawn.

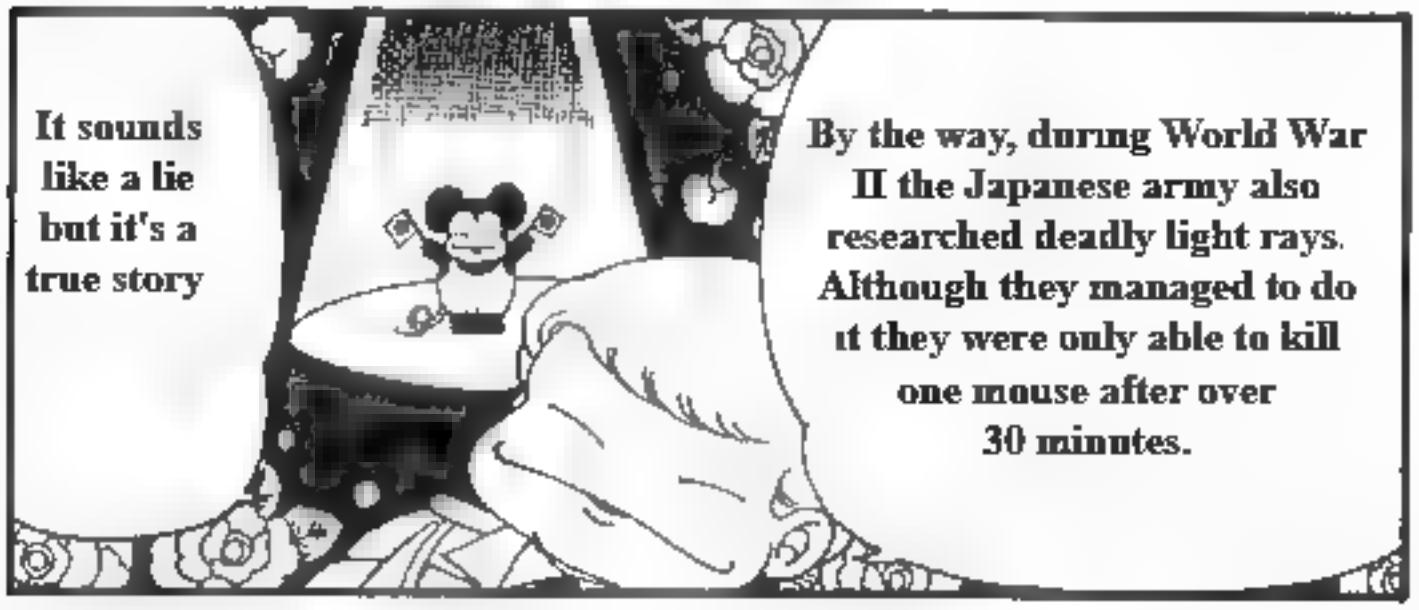
Though it's only used for peaceful purposes now, the American army originally developed the light beams to be a terrifying weapon.



It sounds like a lie but it's a true story
By the way, during World War II the Japanese army also researched deadly light rays. Although they managed to do it they were only able to kill one mouse after over 30 minutes.

I understand so speak quickly!

And this is my business

Tell me who the original owner of this diamond was with your fortune telling

Does such a messy curse exist?!

It's because of the diamond's curse

This is the 31rst floor! How did a car get up here?!

So?

As I thou-ght

Tell him it's outrageous to palm off such an inferior product and make him give me a refund

What will you do if you find the original owner?

I had a detective investigate but it's considerably difficult to find out when the former owners are dead

I like obedient men

I'm happy even if you're happy

Well, start fortune telling I thought you'd be happy to do it

That's the airplane that we would have taken. Luckily I had a premonition about our first flight

That's quite big for a little thing

Well, there was one little thing

And so they went to Rome almost without incident

We must find the original owner of the diamond in the vast city of Rome

We've arrived in Rome Now what?

Because I can't predict my own future

It seems that even though you're a fortune teller, you weren't able to predict that

Recently I've been able to anticipate my bad luck and act accordingly, so I've managed to get through without injury

I got it!

Doing everything I can with fortune telling is delicate work I will seclude myself in the hotel, be sure not to disturb me

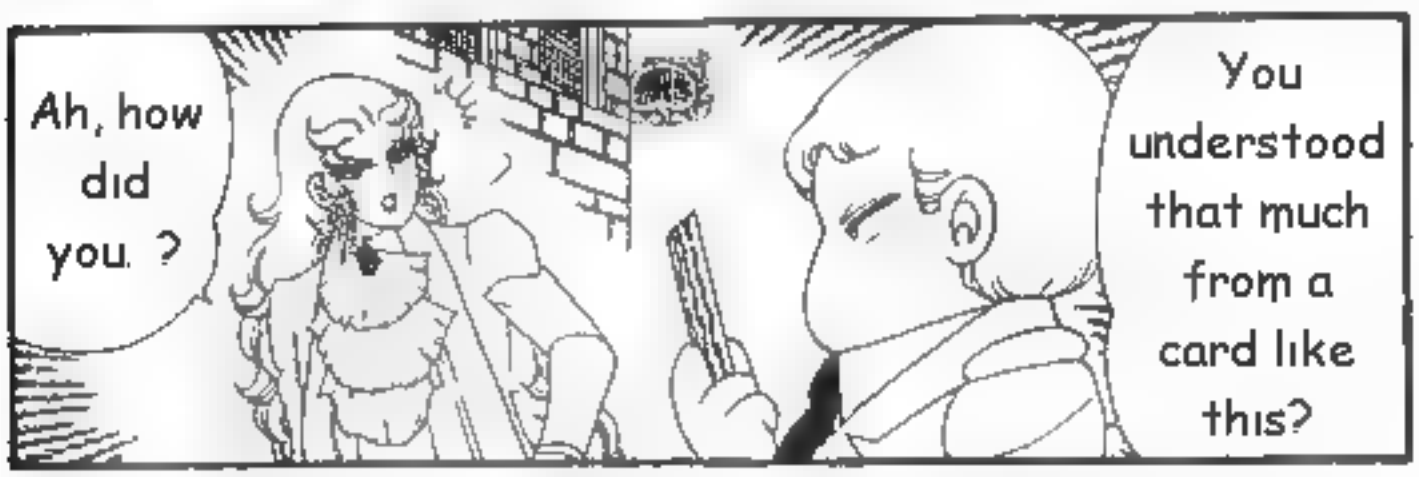
Your fortune telling told you that the owner of the diamond lives here?

Giovanett Street



Ah, how did you. ?
You understood that much from a card like this?

What will you do if you put a hole in it from staring too long?

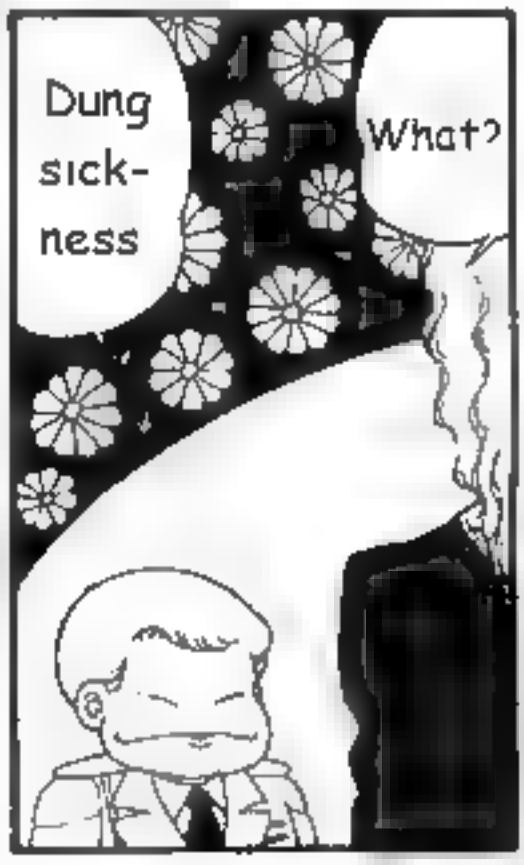
It's better not to tell dull jokes around this kid

Oh, you seem to understand refined tastes
That's right, Zachary There's no way this kind of guy is with a woman.

Woman? Don't be foolish.
What kind of woman is she?



Dung sick-ness

Talking about loving dogs isn't a hobby of mine!

Oops
Ha, hand it over!!

Ah, that's !
Aside from that, I wanted to ask about this

You can't help but get angry around that kid

But that d amond
.....
And he began to talk
Strange events? I don't know I don't know anything about that
Since it left your hands, this diamond has caused strange events to happen one after another If you know anything about that tell us
As I thought, you're the original owner
From inside a shining palace, a boy who doesn't think of the things of the world beckoned me with his hand. I tried many times to go near him, but an invisible wall blocked my path and day after day the boy beckoned for me and I could not go near him
However, after he bought that diamond he had a strange dream The dream was th s.
I heard that many years ago a man named Johannes Alphonne, the 28th descendent of a baron in the Holy Roman Empire, bought that d amond in the East
This? Impossible
That is probably the diamond of legend
There's a story of a prince confined in a diamond in the East
It isn't an invisible wall blocking my path, it's the diamond That boy is living inside the diamond
Then one day he realized.

But
His love was not rewarded no matter how he struggled Even if he could get across the diamond's wall, it was all still a dream in the end, so he sold the diamond to a tradesman
But even if he loved the boy, the diamond prevented Johannes from being with him. Unable to bear the pain, Johannes relinquished the diamond after two years
People would have laughed if he told them that story, but Johannes fell in love with the boy in the dream
You can still joke in this sort of mood?
正解
In-sight-ful
You still can't forget?
But?
On S gn - Correct
Pa Bang
Eh?
Perhaps the legend is true and there's a boy living inside the diamond
And he loved Johannes as well
Curs-ed?
So now we know the origins of this diamond, but how did it become cursed?
Each owner has suffered an unnatural death

No way
But, if that's true

Don't you mean corruption?

I survived thank to my natural virtues

I see In someone else's possession, he couldn't return to the first person, so each owner one after another

You're heartless

Riiight, I don't want to act like I'm crying while heartlessly carrying the casket of some splendid person.

Demon.

Did you see his face when we left? He was in a daze

It's understandable Even if the legend of that diamond is true and there's a boy living inside of it, he can't do anything about it

Well, that's his problem Let's redeem the diamond tomorrow and head back to the country

We'll discuss it with him again tomorrow, but what can we do about it?

"What can we do"?

You talk big but it's nothing but lip service, isn't it? You're blaming me, but what can you do? Don't ask for what you cannot do yourself!

Gu

Well then, can we do anything for him?!

Speaking from my heart, you're a cruel human!

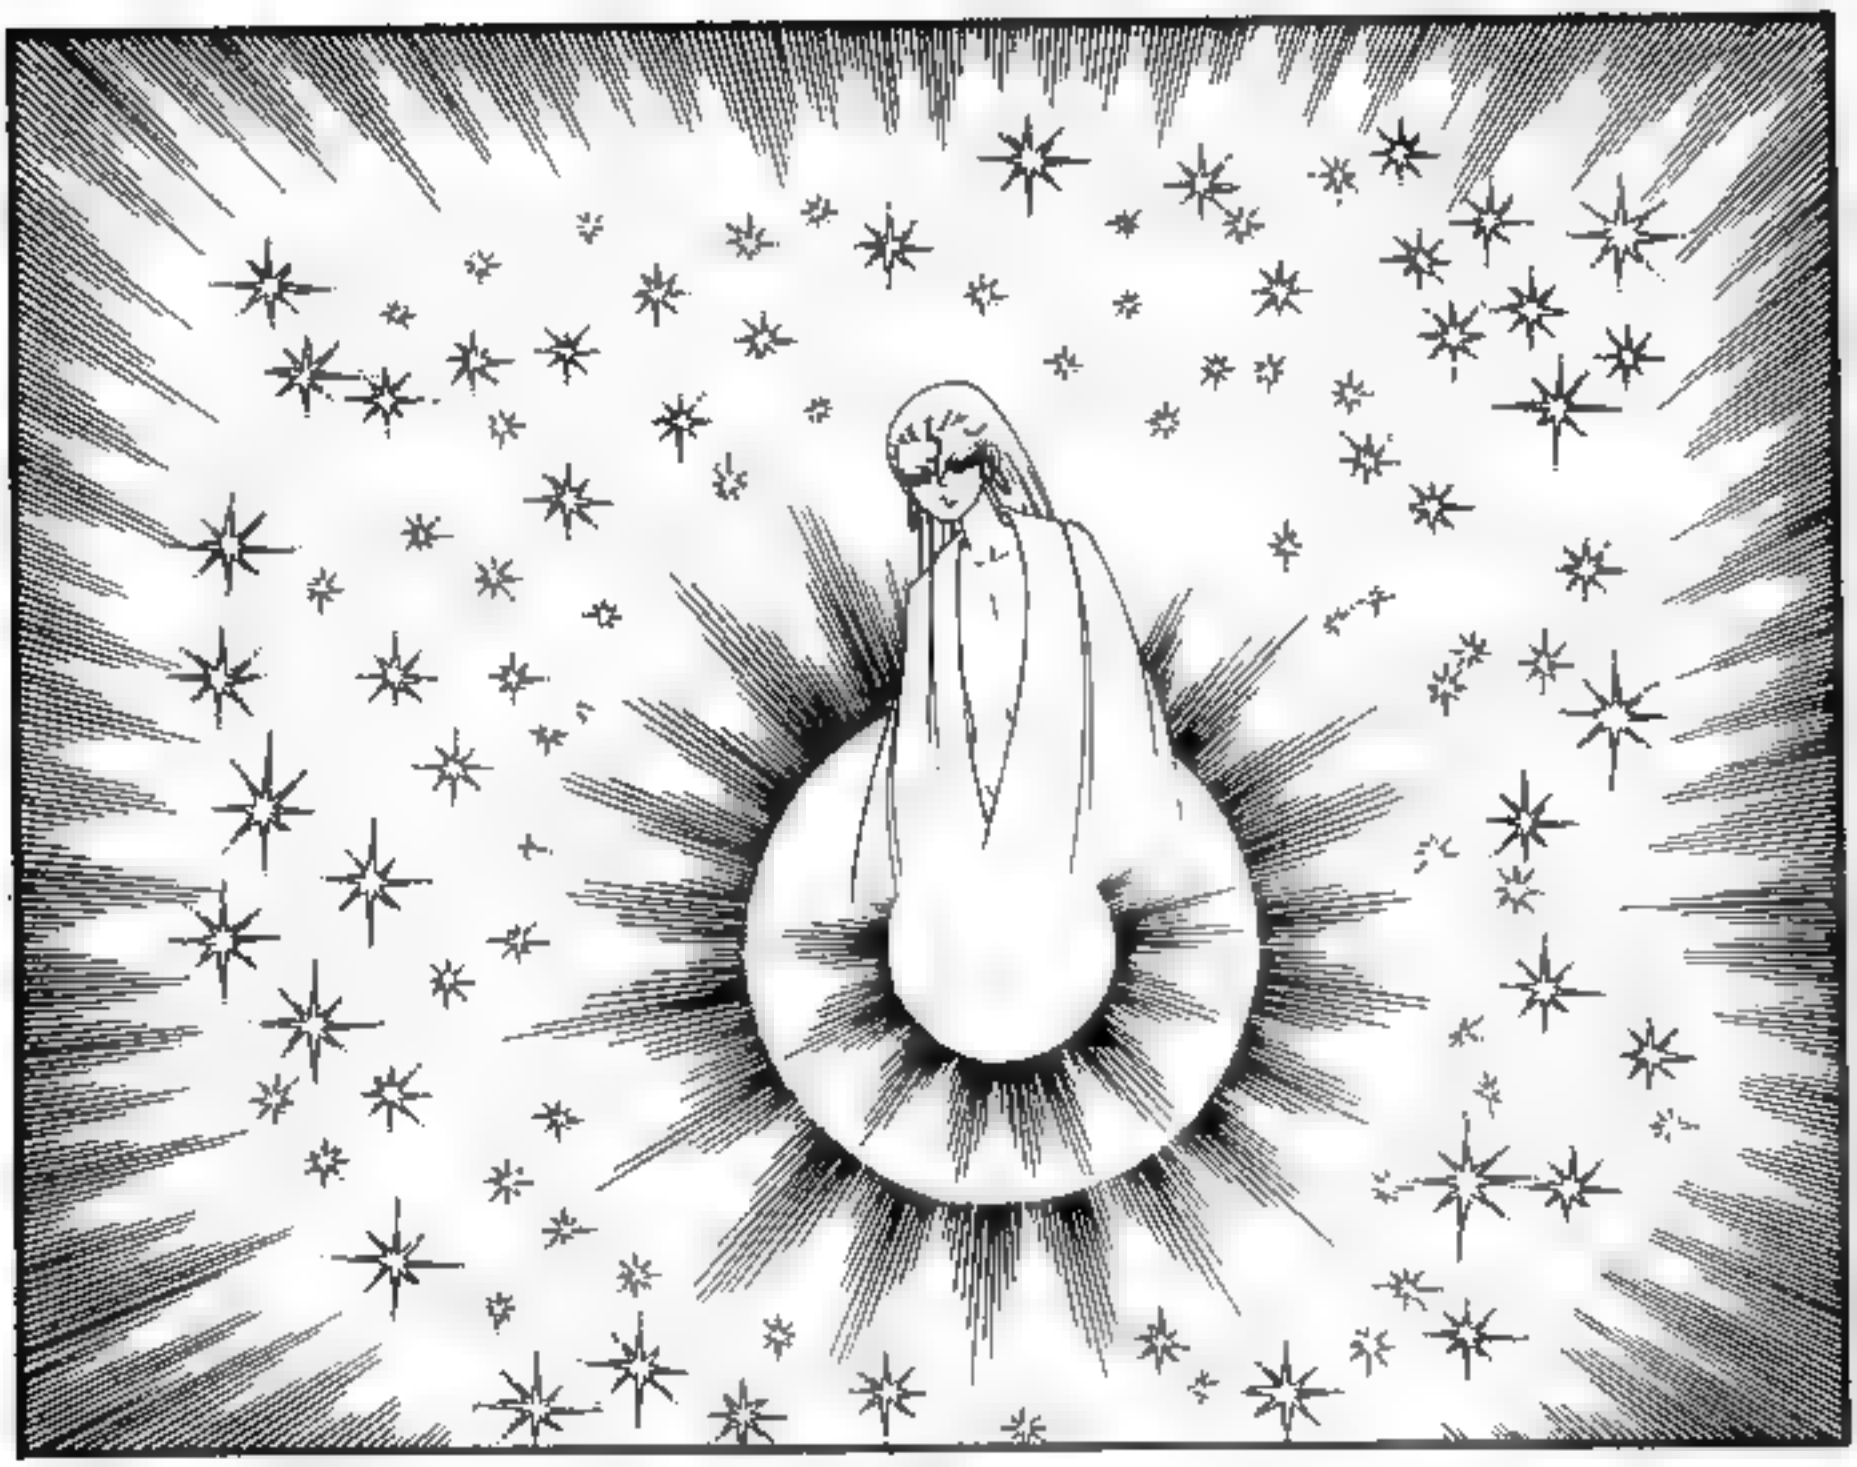
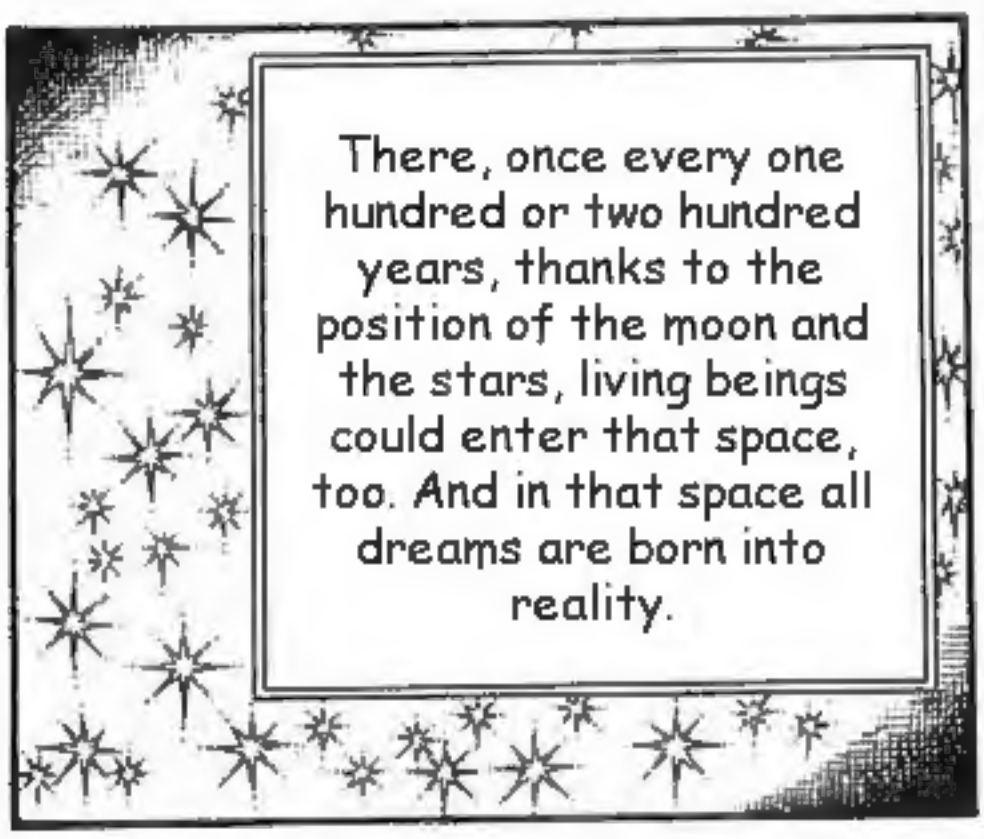
*According to Masanko from the Manga Journal forums, Patariro has disguised himself as Zatoichi, who is blind so he can't see anything. The line he recites is a famous one that Zatoichi says



Past and present melt together, and reality and fantasy overlap in this mysterious space.
A place like this had to exist near an ancient city like Florence.

It was the Empire of Illusions.



There, once every one hundred or two hundred years, thanks to the position of the moon and the stars, living beings could enter that space, too. And in that space all dreams are born into reality.

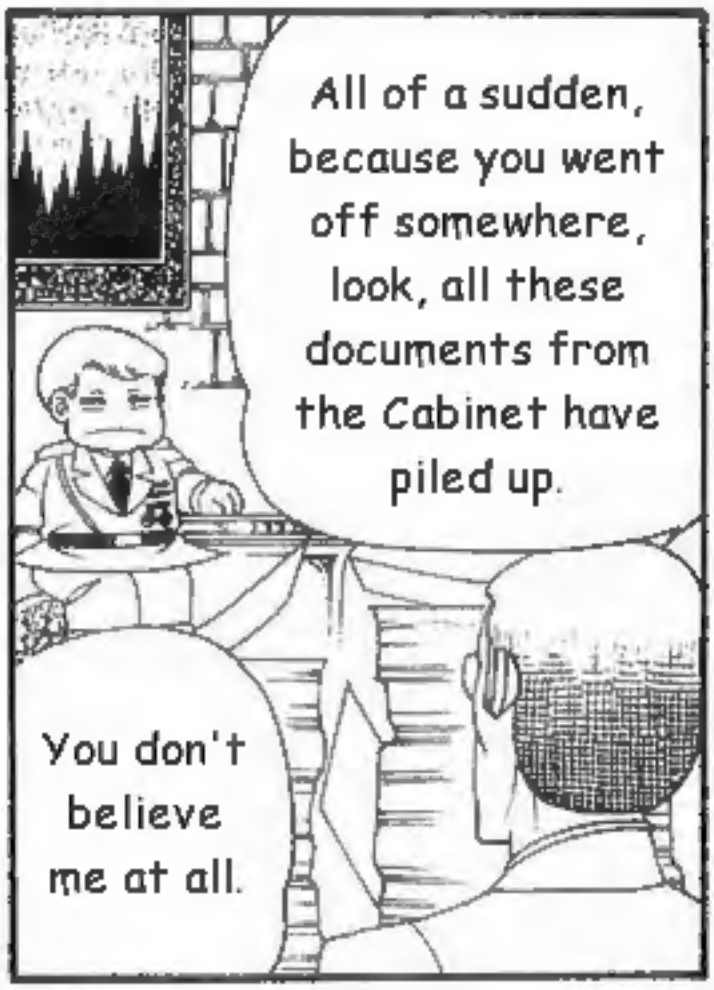
So it seems. Even now I'm not sure if it really happened or not.



All of a sudden, because you went off somewhere, look, all these documents from the Cabinet have piled up.
You don't believe me at all.

I should be the one saying that.

Went into hiding or mysterious disappearance might mean that someone accidentally set their foot in that space by chance and vanished.

Went into hiding?
He probably went into hiding.

But, according to investigations after that, Johannes never returned to his apartment.
